Chapter 1 by Megan Crawford

Ok, I admit, I was strange. I didn't like talking to anyone outside my friend group, which was really only Syd and I, and when I was asked a question my mind went blank from panic, therefore making me seem stupid. I only panicked, though, because I honestly didn't know why they would talk to me. To add to this, I had a disease called ichthyosis, making my skin flake constantly. My life was boring and lonely, and I was bullied constantly. That all changed, one day, when I met Leo..
